

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 4, 1963

MEMORANDUM FOR

MR. BUNDY

The President dictated the following to me:

✓ " 1. We should probably have a talk with Roz Gilpatrick before he leaves to go to Italy, Spain, etc. for negotiations.

✓ 2. I asked John McCone to make an analysis of the military build-up in Cuba. We probably should have a meeting on this, particularly since additional ships are reported to be arriving. John

The cruise missile deployment may have some particular significance!"

Evelyn Lincoln